Alumni Profile
Glenn Crawford ’78 B.S.
"The confidence I gained while in school has been a pillar of my success and development as a business professional."
Read more alumni profiles

Alumni Travel
Pearls of Italy Sept. 30-Oct. 11, 2017
Experience the Italy of Roman emperors, Renaissance artists, and world-famous winemakers. The Pearls of Italy tour takes you to a land where history, artistic tradition and scenic beauty are forever intertwined. Tour includes visits to Milan, Venice, Florence and Rome.
Make your reservation today
For more information and questions, contact Rekha Athreya at 480-965-4034.

Membership
The impact of your contributing membership
Your contribution to the ASU Alumni Association has helped us provide a brighter future for students and alumni. The impact your gift makes on the programs, traditions and resources we provide for our local and global communities can be seen here.

News
Grad schools rank among nation’s best
Two of the largest graduate schools at ASU - the W. P. Carey School of Business and the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College - jumped significantly in the latest rankings from U.S. News & World Report, with two of Carey’s business programs ranked among the best in the country.

University is a top producer of the world’s elite scholars
ASU has joined an exceptional group of institutions when it comes to producing top scholars. Arizona State University, Harvard, Stanford and the University of Chicago are the only schools in the nation with Churchill, Marshall and Rhodes scholarship winners.

Chapter leaders find connection, pride through Tillman Honor Runs
More than 30 chapters of the ASU Alumni Association are sponsoring Tillman Honor Runs in April, and organizers say that the events draw together local community members, veterans, and Sun Devils who believe in Pat Tillman’s legacy.

Media
Founders’ Day honors faculty, alumni pioneers and high achievers
Founders’ Day 2017 honored alumni, faculty and alumni supporters whose efforts have resulted in groundbreaking research, distinguished service and visionary philanthropy. Watch this video recap and learn more about the work of the honorees!

Sun Devil Snapshot
President and Mrs. Grady Gammage honor the members of the Spurs student organization with a barbecue in 1957 at the President’s Cottage on the Tempe campus, now known as the Virginia D. Piper Center for Creative Writing.

Trivia
Show us your Sun Devil Smarts
This month’s question: Who was Cecelia Scoular and what ASU location is named in her honor?
If you are one of the first 3 people to answer our Facebook post correctly, you may win an ASU-themed prize.
Congratulations to last month’s winners Eric Assouline, Roman Gabriel Trujillo, and Joanna Peters, who correctly answered that Hayden Library was named for one of ASU’s institutional founders, Charles Turnbull Hayden!