Five-Star Le Lyrial

October 13 to October 21, 2019

- Five-Star Small Ship
- Only 110 Suites and Staterooms
- All Shore Excursions are Included
- All Beverages are Included
Dear Alumni and Fans,

Cruise the ancient trade routes of Phoenician, Roman and Moorish mariners aboard the Five-Star Le Lyrial on this comprehensive itinerary to the unique coastal jewels found only along the Iberian Peninsula.

The exclusively chartered Le Lyrial embodies the advantages of small ship cruising for you to enjoy: elegant accommodations, an exclusive itinerary specially created with a carefully arranged excursion in each port, the ability to dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels and no long lines for tenders and touring. This state-of-the-art small ship features only 110 Suites and Staterooms with a distinctive French ambiance and sophistication. You will travel in style during the special cruise into the heart of Seville on Spain’s legendary Guadalquivir River.

En route from Barcelona to Lisbon, admire four UNESCO World Heritage sites and experience Portugal’s lesser-traveled Algarve region. Call on the enchanting Balearic Island of Mallorca and visit the vibrant capital city, Palma de Mallorca. Explore the colorful, historic city of Valencia and walk through spectacular La Lonja de la Seda, the city’s UNESCO World Heritage-designated 15th-century former Silk Exchange. Visit the regal city of Granada and tour the magnificent Alhambra Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Stand on Gibraltar’s “Top of the Rock” to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Experience the spectacular sights that inspired works by Gaudi and Picasso, and enjoy the lively beat of authentic flamenco. Onboard lectures enhance your journey and promote engagement in the history, legends and contemporary life of these beautiful cities and villages.

We invite you to join this exclusive itinerary, which sells out quickly each year. I encourage you to reserve now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

Sincerely,

Christine Kajikawa Wilkinson ’66,’76 PhD

Discover the dynamic cultures, architectural and artistic treasures, and compelling history of the Iberian Peninsula, revealed throughout its fortified medieval towns and coastal cities. From these shores, the diversity of Greco-Roman, Judeo-Christian and Moorish cultural influences ushered in great wealth, advances in math, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy, and created the catalyst for the Golden Age of Discovery and global trade of the 15th through the 18th centuries. Ships sailing from Iberian shores to the New World brought back riches to Iberia, creating great wealth among the unique mélange of cultures, giving rise to the advancement of art and architecture. Discover the distinctly Mediterranean tradition of these idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages as you embrace and enjoy your voyage of ancient mariners.

Barcelona, Spain
The lively quarters of Barcelona’s beautiful Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic wonders of Gaudí, Picasso and Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe, and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman seaport since before the 11th century.

Palma de Mallorca
Enjoy a scenic drive past the almond groves that are emblematic of Palma to the beautiful estate of Son Marroig, a medieval mansion with amazing panoramic views of the dazzling azure Mediterranean waters.

View the UNESCO World Heritage-designated terraced farms and water mills of Serra de Tramuntana en route to the traditional village of Valldemossa to visit the famous Carthusian Monastery, former temporary residence of composer Frédéric Chopin. Here, see one of the composer’s pianos and enjoy a piano recital by a local musician.
In Palma, visit the Gothic 14th-century Bellver Castle, the only castle in Spain with a circular design. Enjoy spectacular views 450 feet above the city, the History Museum and an impressive sculpture collection. Tour the magnificent Palma Cathedral, the landmark of the city constructed over the course of 300 years, beginning in 1230, and representing the apex of Catalan Gothic architecture.

Valencia
Located on the Costa del Azahar (Orange Blossom Coast) of Spain, the vibrant sun-kissed city of Valencia was founded as a Roman colony in 138 B.C. amid a fertile plain of orange groves. Walk along the historic cobblestone streets of colorful Plaza de la Reina in the city center and visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated La Lonja de la Seda (Silk Exchange), a masterpiece of splendid 15th-century Gothic architecture, and the elaborate 13th-century Valencia Cathedral, home to the Holy Grail, known for its impressive 167-foot-tall Miguelete Bell Tower.

Granada, Andalusia
Granada, scenically located atop three hills framed by the snow-clad Sierra Nevada mountains, was ruled for 250 years by the Nasrid dynasty, the last Moorish kingdom in Spain, and home to the priceless architectural legacy of the extravagant Alhambra Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Walk through its outer precincts and enjoy a dinner in Granada followed by a specially arranged tour of the Alhambra, and admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftsmen within the Nasrid Palace.

Gibraltar, British Overseas Territory
The near southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, the Rock of Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. Drive to the “Top of the Rock,” the nearly 1400-foot-high limestone promontory, to enjoy an expansive view from Europa Point across the strait separating Europe and Africa, and visit the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony.

Observe up close the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe, and see the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael’s Cave. The afternoon is at leisure to explore pedestrian Grand Casemates Square in Gibraltar’s city center.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain
Cruise into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia’s lively capital on the Guadalquivir River, with a rare docking directly in the city’s center. Drive through this historic area, and see the neoclassical Maestranza Bullring—the largest in Spain—and the riverfront Tower of Gold, a remnant of Seville’s Moorish fortifications. Stroll through delightful Maria Luisa Park and the majestic Plaza de España, built for the Ibero-American Exposition of 1929.

Visit the massive limestone Rock of Gibraltar, and explore the natural grotto of St. Michael’s Cave and its stunning stalactites and stalagmites.
Continue through charming Santa Cruz, the old Jewish quarter, with its gleaming white houses, flower-filled patios and orange trees lining the checkered stone streets.

Tour the legendary UNESCO World Heritage site of Alcázar, the distinctive 14th-century, Mudéjar-style former residence of Seville's Moroccan and Spanish rulers and the city's magnificent cathedral, Europe's second-largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the imposing monument to Christopher Columbus, whose remains were transported here in 1902 from Havana, Cuba, and the world's largest altarpiece, a masterful gilded woodcarving created over the course of 44 years by Flemish craftsman Pierre Dancart. Enjoy a traditional flamenco performance on board the ship.

The Algarve, Portugal
Basking on Portugal's sun-washed southern coast, the province of the Algarve was settled by the Phoenicians and Romans, and later ruled by the Moors. Today, their heritage remains in its distinctive architecture and flavorful regional cuisine. Intrepid 15th- and 16th-century Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve's shores on voyages of discovery to Asia around Africa before triumphantly returning to Lisbon.

En route to Lagos, stop to admire Ponta da Piedade, a group of famous coastal limestone rock formations and cliffs known for both their size, some as tall as 60 feet, and beauty, their canyon coloring a stunning contrast against the translucent waters of Lagos Bay. Enjoy stunning views of sea arches, sea caves and the Algarve coast from the lookout point atop the cliffs.

In the former Algarve capital, the port town of Lagos was once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa. Visit the baroque Church of St. Anthony, with its intricate, gilded carved wood interior.

Lisbon
Lisbon's rich cultural heritage is reflected in its well-preserved palaces, magnificent churches and impressive castle.

See the dramatic Ponta da Piedade along the Algarve coast.

Tour the beautiful Palma Cathedral, “Le Seu,” dedicated in 1230 by King James I on New Year’s Day to honor his safe landing.

Enjoy the glorious green ribbon of park winding through Valencia, its beautiful historic architecture, Modernista buildings and the charming old quarter.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Gohagan & Company, the sponsoring associations/organizations, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is or to do provides goods or services for your trip (including, for example, lodging facilities, airlines, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, fires from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention, the quality of in overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or in any failure of any transportation vehicle which may be due to the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders or third parties; or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of operation, viewing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to make adjustments to the itinerary; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to Gohagan; however, it is not required under these circumstances to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar nature or category in the event a “discounted” reservation must be cancelled, or if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant. In the event a “discounted” reservation(s) is subject to a 12% (or pre/post Program(s)) reservation(s) will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. Should you have to cancel, the following terms and conditions shall apply: cancellation(s) is subject to a 12% (or pre/post Program(s)) per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure; from 95 through 119 days prior to departure, $600 ($200 Pre/Post Program(s)) per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 50% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 59 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRIP INSURANCE: We strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available for comprehensive coverage of penalty and uninsured expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident, and damaged or lost luggage. We will send you an application upon receipt of your reservation.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy costs. If such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the tour participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan purchased interstate or international air (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for subsequently imposed governmental tax increases.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement.
