dazzling lakes and high mountain trails within the heart of Europe.

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It starts with a dream, a desire to explore the unknown. The scenes of your Switzerland story take place in a setting that once catered to the pioneers who conquered natural treasures bursting with vibrant wildflowers and cows 5,200 feet above sea level. Stretch your legs toward Lake Oeschinen nestled nearly 2,000 feet below sea level, where the deep blue water flows in step with the waves of the Alps.

Immerse yourself in the majesty of the Bernese Oberland. Enjoy breathtaking views from the windows of your train or boat as you specialize Lake Brienz's hidden corners. The village is steeped in centuries of civil senior tradition and today you encounter some of this storied practice, such as cheese andagi at restaurants, during a walking tour through town. At the Van Lilino Alpine Farm you may choose a tour in 1950, board a tractor for a breezy, breathtaking ride across a lush valley with alpine cows and mountains. The scene of Brienz and Thun lakes.

Travel Director: You will be in the care of a seasoned AHI travel professional who will manage your trip, allowing you to make the most of your travel experience. Our travel experts have carefully selected this first-class property in Interlaken, Switzerland, to ensure you have the adventure of a lifetime. Switzerland.

The scenes of your Switzerland story take place in a setting that enhances your understanding of the region’s culture and history. The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, and lecturers, whose regional expertise shines in their insider perspective and commentary.

For the next 10 days you will be in the company of fellow travelers and the knowledge care you receive from your Travel Director and the inside guide—your Travel Director is your best friend. This high-caliber professional makes you feel at home and takes great pride in creating a welcoming, interesting atmosphere. The other important characters in this story are the guide and lecturers, whose regional expertise shine in their insider perspective and commentary.

Your travel director …

• Introduce you to the majesty of the Alps and the Bernese Oberland.
• Explore Switzerland’s natural treasures (i.e. lakes, forests and grasslands).
• Share with you the essential sights, sounds and scents that define this country across its many local regions.
• Begin your discovery of the Bernese Oberland with a train journey to Kandersteg. In the afternoon, you’ll join the team to visit Lake Lauterbrunnen, the beauty spot beloved by all who see it for the first time.
• Take in the spectacular views before you! If you’re a James Bond fan, you may wish to ride the cable car (at an additional cost) up the Schilthorn, which sits 3,720 feet above sea level with breathtaking views before you!
• Enjoy free time for lunch in Bern. Perhaps start your day with a pottery store, a plate of ziti pasta, consisting of noodles, tomatoes, butter and pesto sauce. Return to Bern, followed by guided visits to the central waterfront area of Lake Biel before to Interlaken.

Day 6 | Lauterbrunnen Valley | Mürren

Enrichment: Why was the magnificent mountain range of the Swiss Alps once a wilderness? This walk explores the arms of the forest path to Winteregg and on to Mürren, overlooking Lauterbrunnen Valley; then transfer to a cable car and ride to Grütschalp. Hike along a gentle forest path to Winteregg and on to Mürren. Experience the mountain views before you! This walk remains up to 3-5 miles, with some steep walking on uneven and slippery surfaces. It’s recommended that you are in good health and can comfortably climb moderately steep trails. This walk will take you toward Lake Oeschinen nestled nearly 1,000 feet above sea level. Lake Oeschinen is an ideal day trip into the country’s tradition of Alpine climbing.

Day 7 | Blitz | Interlaken

Enrichment: Discover Interlaken! Take a short train ride to the mountain overlooking Interlaken and the famous lake, Brienz. Located in a valley between towering mountain peaks. During summer months, the mirror-like waters of Lake Brienz back and forth from Interlaken. It is a perfect place for exploring the region’s beautiful highlights and sights. After lunch, board a steam train for a breathtaking 18-minute journey. Arrive at the fairy-tale Brienz Rothorn Railway station, built in 1892, board a steam train for a breathtaking 18-minute journey. Enter the mountain overlooking Interlaken and the famous lake, Brienz. Located in a valley between towering mountain peaks. During summer months, the mirror-like waters of Lake Brienz back and forth from Interlaken.

Day 8 | 2. Swiss Alps Jungfrau-Aletsch

Enrichment: Discover the many peaks of the Swiss Alps. Jungfrau-Aletsch, part of UNESCO World Heritage. The 10th July is an exciting day for the region and its heritage. The swiss national day is one of the most important days of the year. This day, you may wish to raise a toast with fellow travelers. Take a moment to reflect on the years that have passed and how the landscape has changed throughout the years.

Day 9 | Grindelwald | Interlaken

Enrichment: Meet your Travel Director for a special Pre-Cruise event. Local immersion. It is the perfect opportunity to introduce you to the region and its heritage. The breadth of their knowledge deepens your appreciation of the region and its history.

Day 10 | Lake Lucerne | Zürich

Enrichment: Bid farewell to Switzerland, the land of lakes and mountains! Part of the anniversary tour will be a late breakfast with your group. Then board the local train for Lucerne. Enjoy a leisurely stroll through the heart of Lucerne, where you will have leisure time to explore the city. Discover the beauty of Lucerne and the Leonardo da Vinci Hotel Lucerne. Afternoon free time for lunch in Zürich. Visit the Beringer wine museum. Sample Swiss wines as you learn about the wine-making process. Return to Zürich and enjoy your farewell dinner.

Day 11 | Departure

After a final breakfast, the day is free for leisure activities. Depending on your preferences, you may wish to explore the city or relax at the hotel. Your AHI Travel Expert is always available to assist you.
