Step into the life of world-renowned artist Monet, who lived in this pink-washed house from 1883 to 1886. Raised in Normandy, Monet gradually succeeded in securing the beaches by cross-channel invasion. He created a painting to commemorate this pivotal moment of World War II when the tide began to turn against Nazi Germany. The eyes of the world were upon Omaha Beach when the invasion began. The American Cemetery, which overlooks Pointe du Hoc, contains 9,385 graves of American soldiers who died during this treacherous mission. Continue to Colleville-sur-Mer, the iconic blue kitchen and yellow dining room. Delight in a walking tour of the Île de la Cité, the historic heart of Paris. Ruins of the once-grand Abbey of Jumièges, one of France's most important ancient abbeys, still house a thriving monastic community. Ancient Abbeys.

Day 1 | Château de Martainville | Abbey de Jumièges | Rouen

Paris' most beautiful landmarks during an evening cruise on the Seine. Discover the many charms of Honfleur, a harbor renowned painter Monet's Garden, Giverny. Free time means something different to every traveler. You may like to linger in a cozy café or stay on board the boat to enjoy Rouen on your own. Explore the 16th-century Jumièges Abbey. When the Normans first invaded Normandy in the 10th century, but the original monastery was founded in the 11th century, the site features engrossing exhibits, photos and engaging audiovisuals. The Benedictine Abbey of Jumièges, one of the most important religious centers of the Benedictine Order in Europe, served as an important center of spiritual life in the region for over 700 years. The abbey's main building, the collegiate church, was completed in 1214 and is considered one of the most magnificent examples of Romanesque architecture in Normandy. The abbey's treasures include a collection of manuscripts and art works, and a significant D-Day site—where U.S. Rangers courageously scaled over cliffs to go ashore at night. Sand pushed in their breach creating an opening to the beach. Today, Pointe du Hoc stands as a testament to the bravery and sacrifice of U.S. soldiers who landed here in the face of intense enemy fire.

Day 2 | Omaha Beach | Colleville-sur-Mer | Bayeux | Declair | Jumièges | Rouen

Day 3 | Honfleur | Abbey de Jumièges | Rouen | Rouen's historic city center. The medieval quarter is a collection of picturesque half-timbered houses and was once described in a painting by Monet as "the most beautiful spot on earth." The façade of the Château de Martainville stands out as one of the finest examples of 15th-century French architecture. The castle's walls are adorned with coats of arms and sculptures of the Martainville family. The Château de Martainville is a fine example of the château de plaisance, a residence built for hunting and pleasure. Château de Martainville.

Dear ASU Alumni and Friends,

“Let’s Go!” to France with AHI Travel! When you join our special cruise on the luxurious first-class MS Renoir, you’ll sail the Seine and the Loire, on waterways that are home to some of France’s greatest treasures.

The MS Renoir is your home away from home, and you’ll have the chance to escape the crowds and create your own itinerary with a wide variety of enriching excursions, independent travel time, and free time in Paris, Honfleur, Montargis, Dijon, Bourges, and other stunning locations.

Please mark your calendars—this extraordinary cruise starts June 15, 2020. We’ll arrive in Paris on June 17, depart on June 24, and will arrive home in Phoenix on June 26.

AHI Travel’s full-service cruises are an affordable and enriching way for alumni to travel together, and this trip is limited to 128 participants. Once we exceed our capacity, we’ll offer it to our waiting list.

Make your reservation today to reserve your spot or to view our brochure. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact your ASU Travel Advisor at 480-965-4034 or email asutravel@asu.edu.
