American Musicology V1

DEAR ALUMNI,

Experience the music and the hospitality of the South with Go Next and American Queen Steamboat Company. Begin in Memphis with an included two-night Pre-Cruise Program. See the iconic sites of the Birthplace of Rock n' Roll on a musical driving tour, take a guided tour of Sun Studio, and pay a visit to the legendary Stax Museum of American Soul Music. Board the American Queen and sail to Greenville, a unique town in the Mississippi Delta region with a rich artistic history. In Vicksburg, see the site of a dramatic Civil War siege before heading to Natchez, the former capital of Mississippi and a quintessential southern town full of antebellum architecture. Next, explore Baton Rouge, the capital of Louisiana. Visit the capitol building or see the USS Kidd, a retired WWII destroyer. Then travel to St. Francisville, a town with more than 140 buildings and plantation homes on the National Register of Historic Places. Your cruise will conclude in New Orleans, but first, visit the Nottoway Plantation House, the largest remaining antebellum mansion in the South.

This nine-night adventure includes fresh southern cuisine, shore excursions, and beautifully appointed accommodations. Reserve your spot by April 15, 2020 to receive the two-night pre-cruise hotel stay and the $300 early booking savings per person.
