LE JACQUES CARTIER

October 1 to 9, 2021
Cruise the ancient trade routes of Phoenician and Roman mariners to discover the extraordinary Moorish monuments and cultural legacy of the most sophisticated civilization of the Middle Ages. This comprehensive itinerary features the unique coastal jewels found only along the Iberian Peninsula, visiting towns and cities at the crossroads of faith and enlightenment during the Age of Discovery.

The Five-Star Le Jacques Cartier embodies the advantages of small ship cruising—elegant accommodations, an exclusive itinerary specially created with a carefully arranged excursion in each port and the ability to dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger vessels. This state-of-the-art small ship features only 92 elegant Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony.

Admire three of the world’s most treasured UNESCO World Heritage sites—cruise in style into the heart of Seville on Spain’s legendary Guadalquivir River to visit the astounding Alcázar, call on the enchanting Balearic Island of Mallorca to discover the cultural landscape of Serra de Tramuntana and tour Granada’s magnificent Alhambra Palace. Experience Portugal’s picturesque Algarve region and stand on Gibraltar’s “Top of the Rock” to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Enjoy a visit to Palma de Mallorca, with excursions to paradiseal Valldemossa and Son Marroig.

I invite you to join us on this exclusive itinerary and encourage you to reserve now.
Discover the dynamic cultures, architectural and artistic treasures and compelling history of the Iberian Peninsula, revealed throughout its fortified medieval towns and coastal cities. The collaboration and joint influences of Greco-Roman, Judeo-Christian and Moorish cultures ushered in advances in mathematics, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy, creating the catalyst for the Golden Age of Discovery and global trade of the 15th through 18th centuries. Ships sailing from Iberian shores to the New World brought back riches to the peninsula, generating great wealth among this unique mélange of cultures and sparking a veritable renaissance in art and architecture. Cover photo: Stroll across Seville’s Plaza de España’s colorful bridges, one for each of the ancient kingdoms of Spain.

Lisbon, Portugal
Lisbon’s rich cultural heritage and pioneering role in the Age of Discovery is reflected in its lavish colonial churches, fairy-tale Moorish castle and sculpted Manueline monuments.

Lagos, the Algarve
Basking on Portugal’s sun-washed southern coast, the province of the Algarve was settled by the Phoenicians and Romans and later ruled by the Moors. Today, their heritage remains in its distinctive architecture and flavorful regional cuisine. Intrepid 15th- and 16th-century Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve’s shores on voyages of discovery to Asia via the African coastline before triumphantly returning to Lisbon.

En route to Lagos, stop to admire Ponta da Piedade, a group of coastal limestone formations and cliffs known for both their size—some as tall as 60 feet—and beauty; their canyon coloring is a stunning contrast against the translucent waters of Lagos Bay.

Enjoy breathtaking views of sea arches, sea caves and the Algarve coast from the lookout point atop the cliffs.

In the former Algarve capital, the port town of Lagos—once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa—visit the Baroque Church of St. Anthony, with its intricately gilded and carved wood interior.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain
Cruise into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia’s lively capital on the Guadalquivir River, with a rare docking directly in the city’s center. During a drive through this historical area, see the Neoclassical Maestranza Bullring—the largest still used by the Spanish royal family today—and one of the world’s most outstanding fusions of Christian and Mudéjar art. Visit the city’s sublime Giralda Tower minaret and magnificent Gothic cathedral, Europe’s second largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the imposing monument to Christopher Columbus—whose remains were transported here in 1902 from Havana, Cuba—and the world’s largest altarpiece, a masterfully gilded woodcarving created over the course of 44 years by Flemish craftsman Pierre Dancart, along with masterpieces by Francisco Goya, Francisco Zurbarán and Bartolomé Murillo.

Gibraltar, British Overseas Territory
The near southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, the Rock of Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. On the “Top of the Rock,” the nearly 1,400-foot-high limestone promontory, enjoy an expansive view from Europa Point across the strait separating Europe and Africa, and visit the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony.

Discover the limestone Rock of Gibraltar, one of Europe’s most dramatic landforms, guarding the entrance to the Mediterranean; this 2.6-square-mile landmass is home to 32,000 residents and 300 macaques.
Observe up close the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe, and see the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael's Cave. Enjoy time at leisure to explore Grand Casemates Square, the largest pedestrian-only plaza in Gibraltar’s city center.

Málaga, Spain, for Granada

Granada, the last Moorish kingdom in Spain, is dramatically located atop three hills and framed by the snow-clad Sierra Nevada mountains. Ruled for 250 years by monarchs of the Nasrid dynasty, Granada is home to the priceless architectural legacy of the incomparable Alhambra and the Palace of Generalife with its brilliant gardens—a collective UNESCO World Heritage site.

Walk through the outer precincts of the Alhambra and admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftspeople within the unrivaled complex of the Nasrid palaces. The remarkable Alhambra served as both fortress and citadel for plebians and royalty alike throughout the 13th, 14th and 15th centuries. Stroll through the beautifully landscaped Generalife Gardens, considered to be among the most breathtaking gardens in the world. The Generalife (Gardening of the Architect) was the rural home of Granada’s rulers in 13th and 14th centuries. Enjoy lunch in a local restaurant.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands

Pass the scenic almond groves emblematic of Palma on the way to the estate of Son Marroig, a medieval mansion with panoramic views of the dazzling, azure Mediterranean waters.

See the terraced farms and water mills of the UNESCO World Heritage site of Serra de Tramuntana en route to the traditional village of Valldemossa, where famed composer Frédéric Chopin spent a winter in the Carthusian Monastery. Here, see one of the composer’s pianos and enjoy a piano recital of his music performed by a local musician.

In Palma, visit the Gothic 14th-century Bellver Castle—the only castle in Spain designed to be circular—to see the History Museum, an impressive sculpture collection and spectacular views 450 feet above the city. Tour the magnificent Palma Cathedral, a landmark of the city constructed over the course of 300 years, beginning in 1230 and now representing the apex of Catalan Gothic architecture.

Barcelona, Catalonia

The lively quarters of Barcelona’s beautiful Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic wonders of Antoni Gaudí, Pablo Picasso and Salvador Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman seaport since before the 11th century.

Visit awe-inspiring Seville Cathedral, which incorporates the 12th-century minaret of the site’s original mosque, known today as the Giralda Tower and often invoked as Spain’s most perfect example of Islamic architecture.
Le Jacques Cartier represents a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury for unparalleled cruising. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships, where authentic cultural experiences and majestic scenery await you.

Respect for the Environment
A new addition to the Ponant “Clean Ship” fleet, an important certification among ocean-cruising vessels, Le Jacques Cartier is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems.

Elegant Suites and Staterooms, 100% with Private Balconies
Each of the 92 Five-Star Staterooms and Suites (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, a private bathroom with shower and luxury hotel-style amenities.

Chic and Casual Dining
Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish, spacious indoor-outdoor restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Daily meals include breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

Life on Board
Experience the Blue Eye, the world's first underwater, multisensory Observation Lounge. Enjoy sweeping views from the upper lounges—which open to the outdoors—and lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa or infinity-style swimming pool. The ship has a beauty salon, a fitness room and three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available (conditions permitting).
