Dear Alumni and Fans,

We invite you on this specially designed small ship journey featuring the rarely offered combination of the sun-washed, off-the-beaten-track Canary Islands and the fabled cities of Morocco. At the crossroads of Africa and Europe, Morocco and the Canary Islands are vibrant blends of cultures, religions and peoples and are lands of majestic scenery. Born of subterranean volcanic activity and sculpted by the elemental forces of wind and water, the Canary Islands were once thought to be the remnants of the lost continent of Atlantis, poised on the edge of the world. The varied landscapes of a whole continent can be found here, from stark, rocky terrain and dramatic mountain ranges to ancient forests and beautiful valleys where quaint villages still hold the markings of conquerors from Portugal, Britain, Spain and North Africa.

This one-of-a-kind itinerary features spectacular opportunities to visit four UNESCO World Heritage sites and small ports that larger cruise vessels often overlook, with an excursion included in every port. Cruise sea routes once plied by Phoenician triremes and Roman galleys aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE DUMONT-D’URVILLE, a gracious and classic small ship carrying only 92 guests. Tour the timeless monuments of the dynamic yet ancient societies of the Spanish and the Moors. Contemplate the contrast of ancient and modern in exotic Casablanca, medieval Marrakech and the spectacular imperial city of Fez.

Explore the historical capital city of Gran Canaria during the Las Palmas Pre-Program Option, and discover Moorish Casablanca and the treasures of Morocco on the captivating Rabat and Casablanca Post-Program Option.

The combination of this classic small ship, the ideal vessel to cruise the relatively short distances between the islands, and our exclusive itinerary is an excellent value. I encourage you to book now while welcome back savings and space are available.

Las Palmas, Grand Canaria, Canary Islands, Spain
Las Palmas is an attractive town founded by Spanish conquistadors. In 1478, it became a port for ships sailing around Africa; in the late 19th century it flourished due to the coal industry and today it is the largest town in the Canary Island chain. A cultural haven in the Atlantic, this lush island also produces grapes, avocados and tobacco used for cigars said to rival those from Cuba.

Santa Cruz de la Palma
Known as La Isla Bonita, “the beautiful island,” for its lushly forested mountain slopes set against a backdrop of bright blue skies and the azure waters of the Atlantic, La Palma holds an abundance of cultural and natural treasures that make it a botanist’s dream and earned it the designation as a UNESCO biosphere reserve. Explore the old quarter of Santa Cruz, once the third-largest port in the Spanish Empire, and see its pilgrimage center and shrine of La Virgen de las Nieves (Madonna of the Snow), the island’s patron saint, and the mid-17th-century church representing a unique fusion of Baroque and Mudéjar (Spanish-Moorish) architecture.

The scenic overlook of Mirador de La Concepción in Breña Alta offers sweeping vistas of Santa Cruz while the Mirador de La Cumbrecita provides a window on La Palma’s geologic past with dramatic views of the Caldera de Taburiente—one of Earth’s largest calderas, sheltering a profusion of trees and shrubs, many of them endemic to this island.

Los Cristianos, Santa Cruz, Tenerife
The ancient Guanche people gave the name Tenerife—“White Mountain”—to this scenic island, dominated by the soaring, 12,195-foot-high pinnacle of Mount Teide, Spain’s loftiest mountain. Travel through Vilaflor and the cool, verdant forests of La Esperanza to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Teide National Park, a starkly beautiful wilderness of mineral-tinted rock, ancient lava flows and distinctive vegetation.

Gaze across the sand and lava rock floor of the vast caldera of Las Cañadas to the snowy summit of Mount Teide and enjoy a panoramic view of the Roques de García, 500-foot-high rocks shaped by the erosive forces of wind and water. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage site of San Cristóbal de La Laguna, a beautiful university town established in 1496, where houses in the old quarter date from the 16th and 17th centuries and feature preserved wooden balconies and ornate doorways crowned with family crests.

Safi, Morocco, for Marrakech
Breathe in the fragrant aromas of Moroccan spices, sold at marketplaces and presented in a signature style.

Built at the interchange of the Sahara Desert and the Atlas and Anti-Atlas Mountains, Marrakech blossomed into...
Marrakech’s famous Jemaa El Fna Square is a bustling marketplace filled with a variety of vendors, ironmongers and barbers by day and storytellers, snake charmers and other entertainers by night.

the hub of the great Berber Empire. Visit masterpieces of Moorish architecture, including the exquisite Bahia Palace, glorious Menara Gardens and 12th-century Koutoubia Mosque.

Explore Marrakech’s bustling markets, or souks, designated a UNESCO World Heritage site, and see master craftspeople carrying on the ancient methods of leatherworking, dyeing skeins of wool and silk and hanging colorful garments and shoes in a vibrant display. In the dramatic Place Jemaa el Fna, “Square of the Dead,” see acrobats, musicians and snake charmers.

Casablanca

Casablanca contrasts a historic legacy dating from seventh-century Berber settlers with a cosmopolitan city center that is a harmonious blend of North African and French culture.

Enjoy a panoramic tour along the fashionable, oceanfront Boulevard de la Corniche, offering stunning Atlantic views. See elaborate Mauresque architecture (a fusion of traditional Moroccan designs and Parisian Art Deco style), Mohammed V Square, United Nations Square and locals sipping coffee in outdoor cafés. Visit the impressive Hassan II Mosque, built on a promontory over the ocean.

Rabat for Fez

Fez is the oldest of Morocco’s imperial cities, surrounded by low hills covered with orchards and olive groves. Ancient embattlements still partially enclose the ninth-century, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Medina of Fez, known as the “Athens of Africa” for its university—the oldest in the world. This marvelous, well-preserved ancient city briefly replaced Marrakesh as the capital of the kingdom during its peak in the 13th and 14th centuries and continues to be the spiritual and cultural center of the country.

Visit the Medersa Bou Inania, walk past the spectacular fountain at Nejjarine Place and see the Kairouyine Mosque. Discover the history of Seffarine Place and see its 16th-century marble fountain, decorated with fleur-de-lys. Glimpse the famed tanneries of Fez—clusters of stone vats filled with red, yellow and brown dyes, and skins hanging to dry in the sun.

The 15th-century city of Santa Cruz de La Palma was the historical epicenter of trade between Spain and the American colonies. Stroll down its cobblestone streets and admire colonial-style houses with charming balconies.
